COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

55. Plaintiffs seek to proceed as a collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) on behalf of himself and the following class of persons:

All Manicurists who worked for the Defendants at any time from six years prior to the filing of this action to the entry of judgment in this action who give their consent, in writing, to become party plaintiffs (hereinafter the "FLSA Class").

56. Plaintiffs and other members of the FLSA Class are similarly situated inasmuch as, inter alia, they were required to work in excess of 40 hours a week without being paid overtime compensation.

57. Defendants have known that the Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees have performed work that has required overtime compensation. Nonetheless, Defendants have operated under a scheme to deprive the Plaintiffs and the other members of the FLSA Class of overtime compensation by failing to properly compensate them for all time worked.

58. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been willful and has caused significant damage to the Plaintiffs and the similarly situated employees.

COUNT I
VIOLATION OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT
29 U.S.C. §201 ET SEQ.
FAILURE TO COMPENSATE FOR OVERTIME

59. Plaintiffs reassert and reallege the allegations set forth in each of the above paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

60. The FLSA regulates the payment of wages by employers whose employees are "engaged in commerce or engaged in the production of goods for commerce, or are employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce." 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1).

61. The corporate Defendant was and is subject to the overtime pay requirements of the FLSA because said Defendants are an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

62. Upon information and belief, the gross annual volume of sales made or business done by the corporate defendant for the years 2014, 2013, and 2012 was not less than $500,000.00.

63. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiffs and the similarly situated employees have been entitled to the rights, benefits, and protections granted by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, et seq.

64. Section 207(a)(1) of the FLSA states that an employee must be paid overtime, equal to at least one and one half times the employee's regular rate of pay, for all hours worked in excess of 40 per week.

65. By the above-alleged conduct, Defendants have violated the FLSA by failing to pay the FLSA collective action Plaintiffs overtime compensation as required by the FLSA.

66. Section 13 of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §213, exempts certain categories of employees from the overtime compensation requirements set forth in Section 207(a)(1) of the FLSA. However, none of the Section 13 exemptions apply to the Plaintiffs or the similarly situated employees because they have not met the requirements for coverage under the exemptions.

67. The Plaintiffs and the similarly situated employees are victims of a uniform company-wide compensation policy. This uniform policy, in violation of the FLSA, has been applied to all members of the FLSA collective action and has deprived them of overtime compensation.

68. Defendants have acted willfully and have either known that their conduct violated the FLSA or have shown reckless disregard for the matter of whether their conduct violated the FLSA. Defendants have not acted in good faith with respect to the conduct alleged herein.

69. As a result of Defendants' violations of the FLSA, Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated have incurred harm and loss in an amount to be determined at trial, along with liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs of litigation, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT
29 U.S.C. §201 ET SEQ.
FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

70. The FLSA regulates the payment of wages by employers whose employees are “engaged in commerce or engaged in the production of goods for commerce, or are employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.” 29 U.S.C. § 206(a).

71. Defendants routinely and regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and FLSA collective action Plaintiffs the applicable minimum wage, in violation of 29 U.S.C. §206(a).

72. The corporate defendant was and is subject to the minimum wage requirements of the FLSA because said Defendant is an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

73. Upon information and belief, the gross annual volume of sales made or business done by corporate defendant for the years 2014, 2013, and 2012 was not less than $500,000.00.

74. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiffs and the similarly situated employees have been entitled to the rights, benefits, and protections granted by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 206, et seq.

75. By the above-alleged conduct, Defendants have violated the FLSA by failing to pay the FLSA collective action Plaintiffs minimum wages as required by the FLSA.

76. The Plaintiffs and the similarly situated employees are victims of a uniform company-wide compensation policy. This uniform policy, in violation of the FLSA, has been applied to all members of the FLSA collective action and has deprived them of minimum wages.

77. Defendants have acted willfully and have either known that their conduct violated the FLSA or have shown reckless disregard for the matter of whether their conduct violated the FLSA. Defendants have not acted in good faith with respect to the conduct alleged herein.

78. As a result of Defendants' violations of the FLSA, Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated have incurred harm and loss in an amount to be determined at trial, along with liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs of litigation, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

STATE-WIDE CLASS ALLEGATIONS

79. The Plaintiffs also seek to maintain this action as a class action, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), on behalf of themselves individually and all other similarly situated employees who, during the relevant statute of limitations period, have worked as Manicurists with respect to the claims pleaded in Counts III, IV and V of the complaint.

80. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) provides that a cause of action may be maintained as a class action if the following elements are met:

- (a) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members, whether otherwise required or permitted, is impracticable;
- (b) There are questions of law or fact common to the class which predominate over and questions affecting only individual members;
- (c) The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;
- (d) The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and
- (e) A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

Class Definitions

81. Plaintiffs seek certification of a class consisting of the following individuals:

All persons who have worked as Manicurists for the Defendants at any time from six years prior to the filing of this Action to the entry of judgment in this Action (hereinafter the "New York Class").

Numerosity

82. Plaintiffs satisfy the numerosity requirements as the proposed class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

83. The proposed class can be identified and located using the Defendants' payroll and personnel records. Class members may be informed of the pendency of this action by direct mail and/or published and broadcast notice.

Common Questions of Fact or Law

84. There are questions of fact and law common to each class member which predominates over any questions affecting only individual members. The questions of fact and law common to each class member arising from Defendants' actions include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) Whether the class members have qualified for exempt status;
- (b) Whether Defendants conducted an analysis of class members' compensation before failing to pay them overtime compensation;
- (c) Whether Defendants conducted an analysis of class members' duties and tasks before failing to pay them overtime;
- (d) Whether the class members have been uniformly classified as exempt from overtime requirements;

- (e) Whether Plaintiffs and class members have regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week;
- (f) Whether Plaintiffs and class members have been expected or required to work in excess of 40 hours per week; and
- (g) Whether Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation has been willful.

85. The questions set forth above predominate over any questions affecting only individual persons. With respect to considerations of consistency, economy, efficiency, fairness, and equity, a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

Typicality

86. Plaintiffs claims are typical of the claims of the class members. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs suffered similar injuries as those suffered by other members of the respective class they seek to represent.

Adequacy

87. Plaintiffs are an adequate representative of the class they seek to represent because they are a member of such class, and their interests do not conflict with the interests of the members of the class they seek to represent. The interests of the class members will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiffs and their undersigned counsel. Plaintiffs have hired competent attorneys who are experienced in class action litigation of this type and who are committed to the prosecution of this Action.

Superiority

88. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy because individual joinder of the parties is impracticable. Class action treatment will allow a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum, simultaneously, efficiently, and without the unnecessary duplication of effort and expense if these claims were brought individually.

89. Moreover, as the damages suffered by each class member may be relatively small, the expenses and burden of individual litigation would make it difficult for Plaintiffs to bring individual claims.

90. The presentation of separate actions by individual class members could create a risk of inconsistent and varying adjudications, establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants and/or substantially impair or impede the ability of class members to protect their interests.

COUNT III

94. By the above-alleged conduct, Defendants have failed to pay members of the New York Class overtime compensation as required by the New York Labor Articles.

95. Plaintiffs and the other members of the New York Class are not exempt from the overtime provisions of the New York Labor Articles, because they have not met the requirements for any of the reduced number of exemptions available under New York law.

96. Plaintiffs and the other members of the New York Class are victims of a uniform company-wide compensation policy. This uniform policy, in violation of the New York Labor Articles, has been applied to all members of the New York Class and has deprived them of proper overtime compensation.

97. Defendants have acted willfully and have either known that their conduct violated the New York Labor Articles or have shown a reckless disregard for the matter of whether their conduct violated the New York Labor Articles. Defendants have not acted in good faith with respect to the conduct alleged herein.

98. As a result of Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiffs and all others members of the New York class have incurred harm and loss in an amount to be determined at trial, along with liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs of litigation, pursuant to the NYLL.

COUNT IV
NYLL Spread of Hours Claim

99. That the Plaintiffs and other members of the New York class worked shifts of more than ten hours for most work days during their employment.

100. That the Defendants never paid spread of hours pay to the Plaintiffs or members of the New York class as required under Part 142, section 142-2.4 ("Spread of Hours Pay") of Title 12 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations promulgated by the

105. As a result of Defendants' unlawful practices, the Plaintiffs and the members of the class have suffered a loss of wages.

106. As a result of defendant's violation of the NYLL and the regulations promulgated therein, Plaintiffs and the members of the class have incurred harm and loss in an amount to be determined at trial, along with liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs of litigation
